Historical Sketch.

AS early as 1635 there seems to have been an attempt made to have preaching in Marblehead. "Rev. John Avery and twenty-one persons, including his family, while on a voyage from Newbury to Marblehead, in one of Mr. Allerton's fishing vessels, were lost by shipwreck, August 15, 1635, on what is known as Thatcher's Island." Mr. Avery was on his way to become the minister of this people. In 1639 there appears to have been preaching, from the record, February 15, that three acres of land were granted by the Salem authorities to Rev. William Walton "to build upon." Nine years later, October 8, 1648, we find the following entry, which is believed to be the first recorded act of the people of Marblehead. "At a town meeting it was agreed on, that there might be an equal way of maintaining the ordinances by Mr. Walton that there should be a rate made, whereby every inhabitant should be rated according to equity; as also strangers, as have benefit by the plantation, by fishing, and make use of wood and timber and enjoy the benefit of the ordinances should be rated according to the discretion of the raters: also to add to every man's rate eighteen pence for Mr. Walton's wood: —and it is agreed that Mr. Walton shall have for this year the sum of forty pounds." In the records for the same year we find it "Ordered, that the rate for the meeting house shall be gathered." It is understood that the meeting house was originally placed on what is now known as the "Old Hill," near where the ministers are buried. "In 1656 the whole amount raised by taxation was 67 pounds—60 pounds of which was for Mr. Walton's salary, and 40 shillings allowed to Francis Linford for ringing the bell, warning the town and keeping the meeting house clean." In 1659 "at a general town meeting it was agreed that the meeting house should be seated and a person was employed to complete the work for nineteen pounds." The following year a committee was appointed "for the placing and seating of all the inhabitants of the town both men and women in the meeting house." In 1662 it was determined "that a gallery should be built at the North West end of the meeting house, sufficient for four seats, which seats were to be completed, the front seats with columns and a board at the bottom to keep the dust from coming down, and to be arched sufficient to strengthen the meeting house." "In 1665 it was agreed with John Stacey and Robert

Knight to board the western end of the meeting house from top to bottom and the foreside of the same, also the roof of the meeting house, providing the boards can be obtained." In 1668, "Voted and agreed with Robert Knight, Francis Collings and Jeremiah Neal to build a gallery in the North East end with five seats, stairs and all other necessaries as the other gallery now is," and a person was employed "to look after the meeting house and ring the bell, and officiate about that work, for which he was to have four pounds by the year." Mr. Walton continued to officiate until he was removed by death in August or September 1668. He was succeeded in a few weeks by Mr. Samuel Cheever. At a town meeting held April 6, 1672, it was "Ordered by general consent that a lentoo should be built adjoining the back side of the meeting house twenty foot in breadth and forty foot in length, with three gable ends in the same, with timber work." The next year a committee was appointed "to seat the lentoo men and women in their seats, put an alley through the old part, dispose of any who should want seats, or lose their seats by means of the alley, in the most convenient place in the old or new part, and rectify any disorders with due care, that such as had been formerly seated, might keep their places, as many of them as conveniently could." "Each person was commanded to retain and use the seat assigned them under a penalty of five pence for each offence." In 1678 "Voted to pay Mr. Cheever's salary 70 pounds in money." In 1679 "Robert Knight was released from paying his town rates during his life for his workmanship in the meeting house in building the gallery." In 1681 "one shilling was paid for an hour glass." The record does not tell when the meeting house was removed from the "Burial Hill" to what is now Franklin Street. It was probably removed between the years 1697 and 1701. It was enlarged at different times, and used there until the erection of the present Stone Church in 1824.

In the year 1684 it was thought desirable by the Christian people residing here, "after serious advice and deliberation" to be organized into a particular church and society; and a unanimous vote to that effect was passed the 6th of August at a regular meeting, at which time it was also voted to invite Mr. Cheever to become their pastor. Mr. Cheever having signified his acceptance of this invitation, and preliminary measures having been taken, the First Church of Christ in Marblehead was regularly organized on the 13th day of August, 1684, consisting of fifty-four members, and Mr. Samuel Cheever was ordained its pastor. "Mr. Higginson of Salem gave him his charge, Mr. Hubbard of Ipswich the right hand of fellowship and both of them, with Mr. Hale of Beverly, laying on of hands: the whole work countenanced with the presence of the Deputy-Governor with five of the assistants, and twenty elders with other ministers and young scholars and many others." Mr. Cheever continued as their pastor, until his death, which occurred May 29, 1724, having preached to them fifty-five years. The last eight of which he had the assistance of a colleague, Rev. John Barnard, who preached for the first time to this people July 11, 1714. Having received an invitation by vote of the church and of the town to become assistant pastor, he accepted, but was not ordained till July 18, 1716—(three months previous to which four males and twenty-four females were dismissed from this church, to form the Second Congregational Church). When Mr. Barnard was installed by a council, consisting of Dr. Cotton Mather, Dr. Colman and others, there were one hundred and seventeen members of this church, twenty-seven males and ninety females. "Honored for his learning and talents, he labored in this part of the vineyard fifty-five years," till removed by death January 24, 1770, in his eighty-ninth year, after Mr. Whitwell had been settled with him eight years. He preached his last sermon January 8, 1769. Mr. William Whitwell received ordination as colleague August 25, 1762, and continued his faithful labors as pastor of this church till his death, November 8, 1781, in the forty-fifth year of his age. January 1, 1783, Mr. Ebenezer Hubbard was ordained pastor, and having held that office less than eighteen years, was suddenly removed by death October 15, 1800, aged forty-three years. Rev. Samuel Dana was ordained October 7, 1801. During his ministry the church and society were blessed with unusual prosperity. There were 480 persons added to the church. In May of the year 1817, Mr. Dana organized a Sunday School in the Old Meeting House, "for the instruction of poor children and such others as might attend," which was continued through the summer and till late in the autumn of the same year. June, 1818, the "Marblehead Sunday School Union" was organized, with Hon. William Reed as President, in which this church joined, and the Sabbath School reopened June 14, with Nathan Bowen, superintendent, fourteen male and twenty-three female teachers. The "Union" held its organization until 1829 by which time all of the other schools in town had withdrawn from the Union and left this school an independent organization.

The Chapel on Pearl Street was erected by the church and completed August 18, 1818. And also the "Stone Meeting House," which was "commenced building in 1824, the walls and roof were completed in November of the same year, the work inside was finished and the house dedicated, July 21, 1825." Rev. Samuel W. Cozzens was ordained and installed colleague August 8, 1832. Mr. Dana and Mr. Cozzens were dismissed by council at their own request, April 18, 1837.

Rev. Mark A. H. Niles was installed pastor August 30, 1837, and was dismissed November 27, 1844.

Rev. Edward A. Lawrence was installed April 23, 1845, and continued his labors with this church till he received a call to a Professorship in East Windsor Theological Seminary, when he resigned and was dismissed July 12, 1854.

Rev. Benjamin Russell Allen from South Berwick, Maine, was installed November 8, 1854. During his ministry, in 1859, there were about forty members of this church dismissed who were organized into a Third Congregational Church of this town. April 26, 1868, the "meadow lot" given to the church by Rev. Mr. Barnard at his death in 1770, and the "two cows leases" given by William Hayden to the church for the use of the pastor, were sold for $844.59, to which was added about $1,800 by donations, and about $2,200 by the Ladies' Parish Society, with which the lot on High Street was purchased and the parsonage erected. The parsonage was completed, and occupied by Mr. Allen about the last of December, 1869, where he died suddenly June 2, 1872.

John H. Williams of Dudley, a student in Andover Theological Seminary, preached the first time to this people December 22, 1872, and was ordained and installed September 3, 1873.

Following the great fire of June 25, 1877, in which the meeting house of the Third Congregational Church was burned, that church before dissolving gave letters of dismission and recommendation to this church to fifty-five of her members, all of whom were cordially received.

During the summer of 1878 the question of building a new chapel was agitated, the chapel on Pearl street which for sixty years had served the church with various degrees of satisfaction, was found to be too small for the regular meetings of the church.

Early in the fall of that year, it was voted to purchase the lot on the southerly side of the church and build thereon a chapel of suitable size and containing such convenience as would enable the church to carry on its work more successfully and also to give good accommodation for the regular sessions of the Sunday-school.

Plans for the new chapel were made by Daniel Appleton and a contract was made with John G. Broughton to execute the same. The building was completed and furnished during the winter, at a cost of $4,960.67 and was dedicated March 12, 1879.

A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized September 22, 1882, with about twenty-five members.

In January, 1883, Rev. Mr. Williams resigned to accept a call to the Clyde Congregational Church, Kansas City, Mo. He preached his farewell sermon February 4, 1883.

Rev. S. Linton Bell preached for this church the first time November 19, 1883, and after a few weeks' service, was invited to become its pastor. He accepted the invitation and was installed February 28, 1884.

In December, 1882, at a business meeting of the church, it was voted that this church ought, in some public and appropriate way, to celebrate the two hundreth anniversary of its organization, occuring August 13, 1884.

A committee was appointed to nominate a Committee of Arrangements for the celebration.

In April, 1884, that committee submitted to the church a list of various names of persons for committees and sub-committees, to make all of the necessary arrangements for the exercises of that celebration.

The report was adopted, and August 13, 1884, was successfully and appropriately celebrated; a full account of which is to be found in the "Bi-Centennial," published by vote of the church at that time.

On the 13th day of March, 1886, Sarah B. Fettyplace, administratrix of the estate of Lucy C. D. Fettyplace, in behalf of the heirs to that estate, as a memorial to their sister Lucy, presented to the society $5,000, to be used in repairing the stone meeting house.

The gift was accepted.

At a meeting of the society called to consider the necessity of extensive repairs on the meeting house and act on the report of a committee who had previously been appointed to examine the same, that committee reported the front wall unsafe and should at once be rebuilt, and the floor of the audience room to be so decayed as to require that more than half of it should be made new, and made the following recommendations :

First. Take down the front wall of the church to four feet below the present grade, rebuild the same using the granite, so much of it as is found to be suitable, supplying the deficiency with new granite, and line the entire front wall with brick. New doors and frames to be set three feet and nine inches lower than the present doors, with arched tops and recessed to swing outward, and also new windows and frames with arched tops.

Second. Remove the embankment on the front of the church to the depth of five steps and rebuild the embankment wall and cap it with granite.

Third. The front half of the vestibule floor to be lowered to the level of the doors, and six steps made from each door to the landing, with suitable posts, rails and balusters.

Fourth. Remove all of the pews and the pulpit, take out so much of the floor and timbers as are found to be decayed and replace with new. The pews to be reset with four aisles instead of three as at present. Make an orchestra platform on the right of the pulpit, and supply all needed material.

By a unanimous vote the report was accepted and the recommendations adopted. The following were made a committee to contract for and superintend the work: Nathan P. Sanborn, John Pitman, William Neilson, William Stacey and Isaac M. Munroe. The committee contracted with Messrs. Parsons & Peterson of Salem to do the mason work and with John G. Broughton to do the carpentry work.

The work of taking down the front wall was begun May 10, and the removing of the pews June 1, 1886.

In taking down the wall, back of the stone over the center door on which the date was marked, there was found, embedded in the mortar, a silver plate about four inches wide and five inches long, with the following inscription engraved upon it:

"THIS TEMPLE

Deacons in 1824

" John Goodwin chosen 1787 Nathan Bowen " chosen 1788.

Here for the first time, we find the name of John Avery in the list of the ministers of this society. He had received a call to the office, but never reached our shore, having been lost, with his entire family, consisting of a wife and seven children, on their passage hither.

We can only account for the absence of both record and tradition of the existence of this silver memorial, by presuming that two members of the committee wished to give to Mr. Reed the credit that was due him, and believing that they would not be allowed so to do, with his knowledge, secretly had the plate made, engraved and deposited where it was found. The secret was not revealed until May, 1886.

Mr. Reed's regard for the church was further shown by his will, confirmed by his widow Mrs. Hannah Reed, that gave to the church $11,000. The income of $7,000 to be used toward the pastor's salary, the income of $2,000 for the poor of church, the income of $1,000 for the Sunday-school, and $1,000 for a pastor's library, one half of which to be used for books to found the library and the income of the other half for annual additions to the same. The fund to be deposited with the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Co.

The silver plate with various papers and records were placed in a copper box and rebuilt into the wall near the stone where it was found. The old pews were replaced with new, finished in the natural hard wood and cushioned, a new carpet was laid; a new pulpit set was furnished, the organ was removed from the gallery to the orchestra at right of the pulpit, thoroughly overhauled and repaired; a new bell weighing 1,557 lbs. was placed in the tower; the roof re-shingled, and an iron fence placed upon the granite capping of the embankment wall in front of the entire premises.

All at a cost of $12,225.00.

Previous to 1890 the church had elected the superintendent of the Sunday-school as they had also elected the deacons, for life, or until they were dismissed. In that year it was voted to annually in the week next preceding the last Sunday in December elect the superintendent and assistant-superintendent of the Sunday-school for the term of one year.

In the year 1900 it was voted that the Board of Deacons shall consist of six persons, each elected for the term of six years. The time of the expiration of the term of office of those then serving was also fixed, as was the term of the three then elected, and that thereafter one be elected each year at the time of the election of the superintendent of the Sunday-school.

At a business meeting held in the chapel January 2, 1901, it was voted to publish a Church Manual containing the record of membership to the end of the nineteenth century and such other relative matter as the committee, having the compilation in charge shall consider desirable. It was also voted that the matter of a Church Manual be referred to the Church Committee with full authority to proceed to its publication and distribution.

Under authority given above the committee issue this Manual from August 13, 1684, to January 1, 1901.

The following "Confession of Faith and Covenant," were adopted at the organization of the church, August 13, 1684, and have remained in full force until the present time.

Confession of Faith.

ARTICLE 1. We believe in one God, the Eternal Jehovah, infinite in wisdom, power, holiness, goodness and truth;—the Foreordainer, Creator and Governor of all things;—distinguished into three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, having all of them the same Godhead, power and eternity.

ART. 2. The Lord made man at first in his own image, in knowledge, righteousness and holiness; from which state man falling by transgressing the law of his creation, all his posterity are corrupted in their whole nature,—averse to all good and strongly inclined to all evil, from whence do proceed all actual transgressions which bind men over to death, temporal, spiritual and eternal.

ART. 3. God, out of his mere mercy, hath ordained his Son, the Lord Jesus, to be the Redeemer of man by the execution of his prophetical, priestly and kingly offices; who, being truly God, took man's nature on him, yet without sin, being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered, in that nature, the death of the cross to ransom the elect, was buried, and rose from the dead with the same body, with which he also ascended into heaven; where, sitting at the right hand of God, he makes intercession for them who believe on him, and from thence he shall return to judge the world at the last day.

Art. 4. In the new Covenant made by God with his people, the Holy Spirit of God works faith and repentance, and dwells in and with all such who are drawn truly to Christ; who, being united to him, are in this life pardoned and accounted righteous,—adopted,—in the whole man sanctified,—shall persevere to the end, and at last, in heaven, shall be actually glorified.

Art. 5. God hath given unto man the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the only perfect, sufficient and perpetual rule of his faith and life,—not abolishing, but establishing the Law as a rule of righteousness for Christians to walk by, promising to accept of sincere obedience to the Law and Gospel through Christ,—when such as live and die unbelieving, impenitent and disobedient, shall suffer the vengeance of eternal fire.

Art. 6. All true believers make up that one body, the Church, of which Christ is head; who, for the gathering in and perfecting of his saints, hath appointed the Word, Prayer, Baptism and the Lord's Supper:—the Ministry, Officers and Discipline in particular Churches; and that, therefore, it is the duty of every Christian to attend carefully thereunto.

The following condensed Confession of Faith is used in receiving persons into the Communion of the Church.

Article 1. You believe in one living and true God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

Art. 2. You believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament were given by inspiration of God, and constitute an infallible rule of faith and practice.

Art. 3. You believe that by nature man is destitute of holiness and inclined to sin, so that without a change of heart he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

Art. 4. You believe that God, out of His love to man, gave His only begotten Son to be a sacrifice for sin; and that by believing in Him we may be saved.

Art. 5. You believe in the resurrection of the dead, and in the day of judgment, when everyone shall give an account of himself to God, and the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

Art. 6. You believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are the appointed sacraments of the Christian Church.

The Covenant.

We do, in the presence of the Eternal God, under the sense of our great unworthiness personally to transact with so glorious a Majesty, acknowledge our inability to keep covenant with God, unless the Lord Jesus enables us thereunto by his Spirit,—with humble dependence on Him for gracious assistance, make and renew our Covenant with God and with one another as follows, viz:

Article 1. We do give up ourselves this day to the God whose name alone is Jehovah, Father, Son and Spirit, the only true and living God; and to our blessed Lord Jesus, as our only Redeemer and Saviour,—Prophet, Priest and King over our souls, and only Mediator of the Covenant of Grace; engaging our hearts to this God in Christ, by the help of his grace, to cleave unto him as one God and chief good, and unto Jesus Christ as one Mediator by faith, in a way of Gospel obedience, as becomes his covenant people forever,—engaging by the help of Christ to endeavor to keep ourselves pure, especially from the sins of the times, and to observe the Lord's commands in the exercise not only of public worship, but of private, in our families, by prayer and reading the Scriptures, and secret also, as God in His Word doth require.

Art. 2. We give up also our offspring unto God in Christ, avouching him to be our God and the God of our children; and ourselves with our children to be his people, humbly adoring his grace, that we and our children may be looked on as the Lord's, promising by his help (as far as there shall be need) to be instructing, catechizing, setting good patterns before them, and to be much in prayer for their conversion and salvation.

Art. 3. We do also give up ourselves one to another in the Lord, according to the will of God, to walk together as a particular Church of Christ, in all the ways of his worship and service, according to the rules of the Word of God; promising in brotherly love faithfully to watch over one another's souls, and to submit ourselves to the discipline and government of Christ in this his church, and to the ministerial teaching, guidance and oversight of the elder or elders thereof and duly to attend the seals and censures and whatever ordinances Christ hath commanded to be observed by His people according to the order of the Gospel, in such degrees of communion unto which we have attained, so far as the Lord hath or shall reveal unto us;—desiring also to walk with all regular and due communion with other churches, for the observing of which and all other covenant duties, we desire to depend wholly on the grace of God in Christ Jesus to enable us thereto, and wherein we shall fail, we shall humbly wait upon his grace in Christ for pardon, acceptance and healing for his name's sake. Amen.

The following abstract of the Covenant is used in receiving persons into the Communion of the Church.

Before the Lord, His holy angels and these witnesses, you acknowledge the Infinite Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, as the only living and true God, and do solemnly avouch him to be your God and portion forever, giving yourself up to him in a perpetual covenant never to be forgotten; to worship him in spirit and in truth, and to walk in all his commandments and ordinances blameless.

You give yourself to the Lord Jesus Christ, as God manifest in the flesh, the head of his believing people; and receive him as made of God unto you wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption.

You give yourself to the Holy Spirit as your divine Enlightener, Guide and Comforter; desiring that all his work of grace may be effected in you; taking the Word of God, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, as your only rule of faith and practice.

Moreover, you give yourself to this Church in the Lord, promising, by divine help, in communion thereof, to attend upon the ordinances of the Gospel here administered, so long as your opportunity to be thus edified shall be continued to you; submitting yourself to the laws of Christ's kingdom duly administered, and to the watch and care of this Church in particular; promising that you will ever study to promote its peace, purity and prosperity.

Thus you covenant and engage; not depending on yourself, but on the mercy of him whose grace is sufficient for you.

(The Ordinance of Baptism is then Administered.)

In consequence of these professions and promises, we affectionately receive you as a member of this Church, and, in the name of Christ, declare you entitled to all its visible privileges.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed upon your mind that you have entered into solemn circumstances and engagements, from which you can never be released. Wherever you go, these vows will be upon you; they will follow you to the bar of God. Walk worthy, therefore, of your sacred profession. Be faithful unto death, and the Lord will give the crown of life.

We, on our part, promise, by divine assistance, to treat you with such affection and watchfulness as your new and tender relation to us demands. This we do, imploring to our common Lord that we and you may be steadfast in His covenant—may glorify Him with that holiness which becomes His professing people forever, and that hereafter, we may come, with all saints, in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, "unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." Amen.

Sacramental Service.

BY NATHAN P. SANBORN.

THE Sacramental Service of the Church consists of twenty-three pieces:

|---|---|
| 1 Baptismal Bowl, | 12 Cups, |
| 4 Flagons, | 1 Plate, |
| 4 Baskets, | 1 Spoon. |

The baskets, two of the cups and the spoon bear no inscription.

If the history of these vessels was written, there can be little doubt that with some of them it would begin with the organization of the Church. But there is neither written history nor tradition at present accessible that gives us any information in relation to them.

Three of the cups have the inscription M.C., and two others M.H.C., probably signifying Marblehead Church, and date back to a time when there was but one church in town.

Two others bear the inscription :

"Belonging to the First Church of Christ in Marblehead, 1728."

One other is inscribed,

"The Gift of
WILL JONES and RUTH WADLONS to the First Church of Christ
Marblehead,
A. D. 1730."

The record of October, 1730, tells us that "Mr. William Jones, dying, ordered his wife to give a small silver cup to ye Communion Table."

We also find that June 20, 1699, Moses Wadlon married Ruth Cheever, daughter of the pastor, who had united with the Church in 1692, and doubtless previous to 1730, gave a similar cup to the Church for the same purpose. And the record of December 21, 1772, explains why the two names appear on the same cup as follows : "Voted, that the two smallest vessels of the church plate be formed into one, and mark't w'h the names of the Donors."

The other two cups bear the inscription :

"The Legacy of
GRACE THOMPSON to the
First Church in Marblehead, 1748.
Remodeled, in 1852."

In 1749 we find the record reads as follows : "Capt. Tho's Gerry gave a silver Cann. w'g 15 oz. 15 pw., being a Legacy from Mrs. Grace Thompson by Capt. Gerry, Executor."

The plate bears the following inscription :

"The Legacy of
SAMUEL RUSSELL,
to the First Church in Marblehead, 1723.
Remodeled, 1852."

We find on the record of 1725, "Mr. Samuel Russell, who died May, 1725, gave a Legacy of 30 pounds to this church for the use of the communion table, which was made into a Silver Tankard," and probably remained in that form until remodeled in 1852.

Each of the four flagons bears an inscription in Latin. The first was given January 1, 1749, and devoted to the Sacramental Service of this Church by Rev. John Barnard, the second pastor. Inscription :

"Johannes Barnardus, Pastor Secundus primæ Ecclesiæ Christi upud Marblehead, hanc Crateram ad usum sacrosanctæ cænæ in Ecclesia dicta dedicavit.

"Jan. 1, 1748-9."

The next was on the same day, given by Robert Hooper, Esq., and was also devoted to the Sacramental Service of the Church, as shown by the following inscription:

"Robertus Huperus Arm. hanc crateram ad usum sacrosanctæ cænæ in Ecclesia Christi prima Apud Marblehead Dedicavit.

"Jan. 1, 1748-9."

The origin of the third flagon is shown by the following vote of the Church, May 7, 1759:

"Voted to have a Flagon made out of the Legacy of Joseph Sweett, Esqr., with additions by his heirs, Mr. Samuel Sweett, Mrs. Ruth Hooper, Mrs. Martha Lee and Mr. Jos. Lemmon," which, with the sacramental use for which it was set apart, is stated in the following inscription:

"Hoc Legatum Josephi Sweett Ari. una cum Additamenta ejus Hæredum Di S. Sweett, Dæ R. Hooper, Dæ M. Lee et Di J. Lemmon ad usum sacrosanctæ cænæ in prima Christi Ecclesia apud Marblehead consecratum. Maii 7, 1759."

The fourth flagon, as the inscription informs us, was procured at the expense of the church treasury, and devoted to the sacramental use of this church. The treasury had no doubt been replenished by the sale of such old plate as was no longer required for use on account of the recent donations, and also of the three Pewter Flagons given for the communion table in March, 1717, one by "Mrs. Sarah Dixey, wife of Dea. Dixey," one each by "Mr. Joshua Orne" and "J. B." (probably Rev. John Barnard who had then been settled not quite one year), from which, together with the accumulations from the ordinary collections, this flagon was purchased. The inscription is as follows:

"Hæc Lagena argentea ad usum sacrosanctæ cænæ in prima Christi Ecclesia apud Marblehead ex ejus Thesauro Consecrata, Maii 7, 1759."

The Baptismal Bowl has the following inscription:

"The Donation of
Doc'r JOSEPH LEMMON, to the First Church of Christ in Marblehead,
A.D. 1773."

In the bottom is stamped the name of the manufacturer, "REVERE," undoubtedly the work of Paul Revere, who was at that time one of the principal silversmiths of Boston and who, a year and a half later, made himself famous by his patriotic ride to Lexington and Concord. There is also engraved upon it a beautiful picture of a swan plucking feathers from her breast to make a nest for her young.
